

Digital Graphic Design Associate

Are you looking for a challenging student job where you will receive lots of hands-on experience and have real influence? Then we have the right opportunity for you!

Start date September 1st, 2026, or shortly thereafter.

We are looking for a student who is passionate about graphic design and someone who finds it interesting to be a part of a company on an international journey. Can you help us take our marketing and communication to the next level?

The job

We are looking for a student associate for our marketing and communication team who can work 2-3 days per week. We expect that you can work around 15 hours per week, but of course we are flexible around exams. It is crucial to us that you are a creative individual and can execute and work independently with your tasks and projects.

Responsibilities

Your responsibility will be to support the rest of our marketing and communication team with designing and producing graphic marketing and sales material. The job will include tasks such as:

- Company-profiled mock-ups
- Interactive demos
- PDF whitepapers, one-pagers, etc.
- Banners for advertising
- PowerPoint presentations, pitch decks and templates
- User journeys
- Content layouts
- Create and post content on our website (using Umbraco and Hubspot)

Your profile

We are looking for a creative individual who has an interest in digital marketing and finds it exciting to handle many different tasks. In addition to this, we are looking for a person who has the willingness to learn, is a team player, outgoing and has a commercial mindset.

We imagine that you:

- Are studying for a relevant graphic design education, e.g., Multimedia Design
- Have experience with Adobe Creative Cloud (Photoshop, InDesign, and Illustrator), Figma, or similar tools for prototyping, design, and team collaboration
- Pay attention to details and are quality orientated
- Are interested in being part of a company where we have fun and care about each other
- Have strong Danish and English writing skills

We offer

You get a place in our marketing and communication team which right now consists of four marketing profiles (including one Digital Graphic Design Student Associate). We have an informal culture where we emphasize collaboration and professional development. We are a spacious workplace where work and private life are considered. We care about diversity and always want to maintain a diverse workforce. Therefore, we encourage everyone regardless of gender, ethnic origin, religion, age, gender identity, sexuality and political affiliation, etc. to apply for the position.

Interested?

If you're excited about joining us on this journey, have questions, or would like to know more about working at e-Boks, please feel free to contact our Director of Communications ESG, Susanne Søndahl Wolff, ssw@e-boks.dk. Susanne will be available for questions from July 20th. We're conducting interviews on a rolling basis, so we encourage you to apply as soon as possible.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
